Dear Sir:

Applicants have completed their own calculation of patent term adjustment and have found a discrepancy with the final calculation of 468 days. The applicant should have been deducted an additional 31 days due to an extension of time dated September 4, 2007. We have calculated the total patent term adjustment to be a total of 437 days. Applicant's hereby request a re-calculation of the patent term adjustment.

Respectfully submitted,

By G. F. Rothwell
